

Explore People

Browse A–Z

Filmmaker, Cinematographer,
Photographer, Teacher

Hope Hall

Bio

Hope Hall is a documentary filmmaker, cinematographer, photographer, and teacher. Her short films have been selected for over 40 film festivals worldwide and have received numerous awards. From May 2011 onward, she was President Obama’s Principal Videographer at the White House. (She began working for President Obama during his 2008 campaign as part of the video road team in the New Media Department.) She is in the research phase of what comes next.

Featured in

Contributed

The Creative Independent is ad-free and published by Kickstarter, PBC. See also: Terms, Privacy Policy.

